School Scheduling 101

Thursday, April 18th, 2019
9:30 -3:30 pm

Join us for this one-day event intended for current administrators. Begin your day with a brief overview and Q&A period regarding the many staffing considerations contained within the NBTF Collective Agreement and other relevant policies, agreements and documents. Once we have those foundations established, participants will be grouped in similar sized school and grade level configurations for an opportunity to participate in a collegial 'think tank' on scheduling best practices. The remainder of our time will see time for individuals to work quietly on their own school schedules while representatives from the NBTF, NBTA and other partners circulate to help as needed. Please bring your laptop and/or any other materials you may need to make this individual work time productive for you.
